KUANG-CHOU REGULATES NEWS OUTLETS

RESTRICTS HONG KONG NEWSPAPERS, REPORTERS -- Hsin-sheng Wan-pao, 31 Oct 49

News from Kuang-hou (Canton) reports that the Take-Over Committee of the Kuang-chow Military Control Commission has restricted the circulation in Kuang-chow of all the Hong Kong newspapers excepting Ta Kung Pao, Wen Wei Pao, and Chung Pao. The restriction was also extended to the activities in Kuang-chow of the reporters for the restricted Hong Kong newspaper until their papers are permitted to circulate in Kuang-chow.

KUANG-CHOU TO HAVE ONLY THREE NEWSPAPERS -- Hsin-sheng Wan-pao, 28 Oct 49

Hereafter, Kuang-chou is to have only three newspapers -- the Nan-fang Jih-pao, already in publication, and the Hua-shang Pao and Jen-min Pao, which are preparing for publication. None of the former Nationalist newspapers are to resume publication.

An editorial in the 27 October 1949 issue of the Han-fang Jih-pao criticized a certain article which appeared in a recent issue of the Tsueh-pao, prepared by the Kuang-chow Student Federation. These criticisms are a prelude to eventual control by the Communists.

The Hua-shang Pao was taken over by the Kuang-chow Military Control Commission on 27 October 1949 as its official organ.

SOUTH CHINA CCP NEWS ORGANS -- Hua-ch'iao Jih-pao, 1 Nov 49

Kuang-chou, 24 October (MCNA) -- The initial issue of the Wan-fang Jih-pao, official organ of the South China Bureau, Central Committee, CCP, appeared on 23 October 1949. On the same day the South China Office of the New China News Agency was established and began to issue news releases. The People's Broadcasting Station in Kuang-chou began regular broadcasting on the evening of 20 October 1949.
